

Southern Regional Science Association

Exhibit at the 47th Annual Meetings of SRSA

March 26-30, 2008

The meetings will be held at the Key Bridge Marriott Hotel in Arlington, VA, across the Potomac from Georgetown.

This is the premiere of the SRSA Exhibits and an excellent opportunity to showcase your product/service or institution to a targeted audience. Attendees include members from approximately 40 states, 7 countries and from various backgrounds including: academia, state governments, local governments, Federal government, economic development agencies, private firms, chambers and many more.

The exhibit fee ($500) includes an exhibit table, your logo on the website and in the program, and one registration.

For more information contact:
John Sporing
Co-Executive Director
Southern Regional Science Association
john.sporing@bea.gov
202-606-9670

